TWENTY-NINTH CLASH BETWEEN FLEAS AND FLIES ENDS FOOTBALL SEASON AT AT S. S. C.

On Sunday afternoon at 2:30, the twenty-ninth annual Flea-Fly gridiron classic will be contested on the St. Stanislaus gridiron. Of all the football engagements played anywhere this spectacle of youngsters is one of the most thrilling. Every year tremendous enthusiasm is built many weeks in advance of the game. In fact, it has grown to be one of the major football attractions along the Coast. Parents and friends of the students come from all over to witness the spirited play as these baby gridders put on a football show that rivals anything of its kind in the country. If you want your money's worth be sure to make a date for the Flea-Fly classic on Sunday afternoon December 2.

106 Players To Participate

This year's Flea-Fly personnel numbers 106 players. Brother Leonard who has handled this spectacle for many years has divided them into squads consisting of four teams each. No player weighs over 100 pounds which is the maximum set by Brother Leonard. The players come from St. Stanislaus and from the St. Joseph's Academy.

Coaches Have Been Named For Various Teams

A big coaching staff is necessary to handle this large group of players. Headed by Brother Leonard who is the Major-domo of the entire affair we also have as his capable assistants Brothers Joseph and Cyran of the Fleas and Flies, respectively. The coaches of the four teams making up the Fleas are as follows: Graham Dacovich, Dutch Kenning, J. B. Abadie, John Capone and Wilson Montero. The brain trust for the Flies: John Dicks, Walter Cleveland, Anthony Caranna, Teddy Millette and Thomas Mobley.

From here on out these mentors will concentrate on a strategy of baffling reverses and intricate plays calculated to demoralize the opposition.

Proceeds of This Game Is For Brother Peter's Christmas Tree

Whatever money is collected from the sale of tickets for this game goes for a most worthy and charitable cause—to swell the amount of Brother Peter's Christmas Tree Fund for the benefit of the hundreds of poor children throughout the county. The price of admission will be 25c and 50c for children and adults, respectively.

Everyone is urged to buy a ticket not only for the sake of the game which is worth even more as pure wholesome entertainment but also for the purpose of making the Christmas party for the under-privileged a grand success.

In addition to the game Brother Leonard plans to hold a tug-o-war at half-time between the two squads.

The St. Stanislaus Band will play for one team and the Bay High band will represent the other team.

COLUMBIA BAND ARRIVES FOR CONCERT FRIDAY NIGHT

Will Parade In Afternoon
At 4:30

The Columbia High School Band arrived in Bay St. Louis today in the early part of the afternoon. At 4:30 the visiting band, the St. Stanislaus and the Bay High Band will parade through town. At six o'clock, the Columbia Band will be taken to the Reed Hotel where they will be the guests of the St. Stanislaus Band for supper. At 7:45 the concert will begin. The program is to be presented in S. J. A. Auditorium. Brother Casimir, President of Saint Stanislaus, will welcome the Columbia Band and its director, Mr. H. F. Lane.

Mr. Lane brings his fine musical organization here well prepared for this concert. On November 20, he presented this program in the Columbia High School auditorium as a preview of tonight's performance.

It is expected that a nice crowd of adults will turn out for this one hour of fine entertainment. The Columbia Band comes here upon the invitation of Brother Romuald who suggested to Mr. Lane that an exchange of concerts between these two bands would do much to stimulate interest among band students and would offer the public an opportunity to see what other school bands are accomplishing. "This is a swell treat for the young musicians and we hope that this can be made an annual affair. It has come to be a fact that school bands are somewhat indispensable nowadays. School bands have become a necessity at football games, sponsored by the school. Civic organizations inevitably call on school bands for parades, rallies, etc., and school bands are always ready and willing to answer the call whenever band music will add enjoyment."

TRAFFIC DEATHS
In the first eight months of 1945 the United States had 15,620 traffic deaths. This was an increase of 4% over the same period of 1944. The greatest increase came in the month of August after traffic had been "turned loose," so to speak. In the eight months Mississippi had 168 traffic deaths, compared with 200 in the same period of 1944, which is a reduction of 16%.

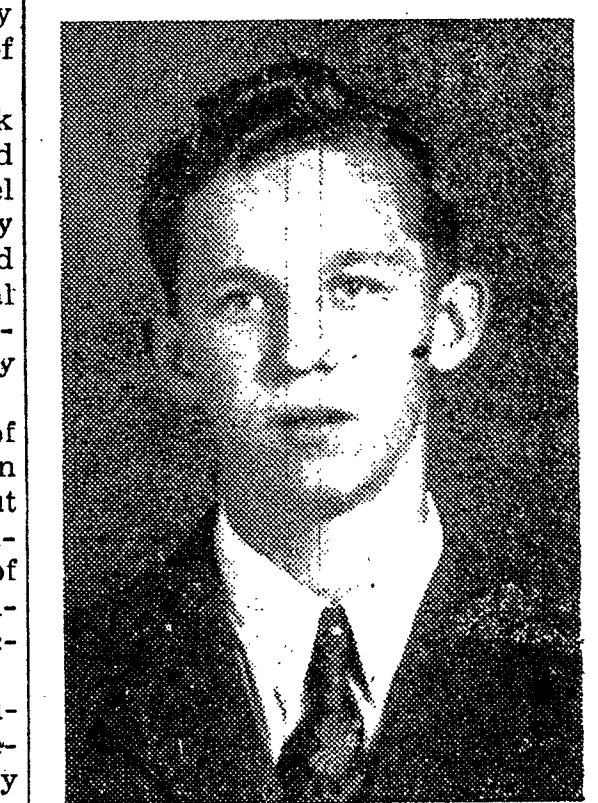

FLAGS PRESENTED

At the War Memorial Building on the afternoon of November 2 the flags (United States flag and Mississippi State Flag) which fluttered from the mast of the Battleship Mississippi as that historic fighting craft steamed into Tokyo Bay to take part in the final surrender of Japan, were presented by the Navy to Governor Thomas L. Bailey for the State of Mississippi. These flags will rest in the archives of Mississippi as reminders of the noble part played by the battleship over which they proudly waved during the tug of battle and in the hours of supreme victory which followed the clash of massive steel and powerful guns. The ceremonies of presentation were interesting and significant, and Mississippi is proud to own and to keep these mementoes of victory in the most horrible war in all the history of time.

CONGRATULATIONS, FOOTBALL TEAM AND COACHES

THE proverbial curtain has been drawn on another season in the long history of football at St. Stanislaus. As usual, we cast a retrospective glance over the games played with a view of ascertaining the respective merits of this year's football team and its coaches. Our humble summation of our findings is hereby set down for what it is worth.

The St. Stanislaus football team of 1945 did not win many victories. In this respect the world would automatically label it a dismal failure. This is because the former has only one yardstick by which it measures success, namely, in achievement. The world does not take into consideration such extenuating factors as the lack of experience, limited student body from which to select material, a championship schedule, et cetera. The world wants only victories; it despises losses as indicative of failure.

However, we at St. Stanislaus are proud of our football team. We are proud of its coaches, namely, John "Baby Grand" Scarife and Brother Adalbert. The majority of the former have just completed their second year in varsity competition. They have had to face a schedule of the outstanding high school football teams from Louisiana and the Gulf Coast. Three of the Louisiana teams played are ranked among the first five in that state. To our great satisfaction, the St. Stanislaus team gave creditable performances against all of them. Our coaches have no need of our compliments. They performed near miracles with the limited material at their disposal. Mr. Scarife deserves our highest tribute of praise for the excellence of his tutelage on the completion of his first year as Head Coach at St. Stanislaus. As a bit of consolation he has the satisfaction of knowing that the greater number of this year's squad will be on hand next September. Perhaps then he will be in a better position to enjoy the fruits of his labor and may have the satisfaction of repaying in kind of victorious opponents of the past season.

Competition in sports does not entail victories to realize its purpose. Success is not dependent on achievement as a criterion of its worth. Let us quote the words of His Holiness Pope Pius XII on sports as the best authority of the place sports hold in the educational development of our youth. "No where does he stress victory as the sole objective. In fact, he does not consider it as an objective at all.

"Sport, properly directed, develops character, makes a man courageous, a generous loser and a gracious victor; it refines the senses, gives us intellectual penetration, steels the will to endurance. It is not merely a physical development then. Sport, rightly understood, is an occupation of the whole man, and while perfecting the body as an instrument of the mind, it also makes the mind itself a more refined instrument for the search and communication of truth and helps man to achieve that end to which all others must be subservient, the service and praise of his Creator."

In conclusion, we congratulate both the Coaches and the Football team for their splendid season. The team is truly representative of the true spirit of St. Stanislaus. In victory or defeat, they embodied the teachings of St. Stanislaus. I say, St. Stanislaus, win or lose, forever!—St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaw, November 24, 1945.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. TRY IT!

Flea-Fly Game

As Army preps for Navy, and Tulane for Notre Dame,

So our Flies and Fleas are eyeing their Christmas football game.

They seek no blazing headlines, no monetary reward.

But fight their brave young hearts out for glory of the Lord.

To poor Shepherds sang the Angel, "Peace on earth, good will to men,"

The Flies and Fleas repeat their refrain again and again.

When they raise the funds to overflow the poor kid's Xmas Tree—

Promoting one day in the year when the lowly forgets its misery.

No hearts touch the heart of Christ more closely than these girls and boys'.

Who, not of their fault, are deprived of life's given joys.

These are the children Christ bowed to from His own Crucified Tree.

To these He addressed His pleading, "Suffer the little children to come to Me."

The Flies and Fleas abandon playthings and even fail to eat

Till they're sure they'll give a good show when the lines of battle meet.

For a month they have practiced daily through rain and burning sun,

Yet never a yelp is heard nor gripe from the youngest one,

A bloody nose or a blue-black eye, or a swelling jaw,

They wear those scars as proudly as service stripes of war.

We who do not play, let us contribute in some way to this worthy cause.

She can now tell you...

"We Have Turned The Corner"

She is a telephone service representative and from now on her story is more cheerful. New switchboards, cables, wire and telephones needed to provide more service are becoming available in increasing volume.

But to catch up on held orders for service and to make replacements that were necessarily postponed during the war will require very large additions to our telephone plant.

It is a tremendous construction job that will require much time to complete even after the delivery of equipment by the manufacturers. So she cannot promise just when all orders will be filled. There are places where we have complicated switchboards to install, even places where we must build new buildings or building additions to house new switchboards.

But she can say that we are on our way to give service to all who want it—on our way to restore Bell System standards of service and raise them even higher.

HOME AGENT NOTES

If you haven't had any luck in your search for black pepper, there are other kinds of pepper right here at home. They are not the kind you sprinkle on your eggs and potatoes, but they will spice up your food quite well.

Probably no other cultivated food plant comes in so many forms as the pepper. Peppers are of various shapes, sizes, colors and degrees of pungency. The thing to do is make use of all the peppers you have before the cold gets them. Try the following recipes:

Pepper Sauce

Wash small cherry or Chile red and green peppers, pack into bottles, cover with good cider vinegar, and cork. It will be ready for use within a few days. As the sauce is used more vinegar may be added to the peppers from time to time.

Tabasco Sauce

4 dozen red tabasco or Chile peppers
1 cupful of spiced vinegar
1 clove of garlic
Boil the finely chopped garlic and peppers until tender, drain, rub thru a sieve, and add to the paste enough spiced vinegar to make it of a creamy consistency. Bottle and seal. Onion may be used in place of garlic if desired.

Spiced Vinegar. 1 quart of vinegar, ½ cupful of sugar, 1 tablespoon each of salt, powdered ginger, and mustard seed, 1 tablespoonful each of whole pepper, celery seed, cloves, cinnamon and allspice.

Shelled Nut Yardstick

When buying nuts in their shells, homemakers sometimes are uncertain as to how much "meat" they will yield. This yardstick suggested by home economists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture will help eliminate guess-work:

One pound of unshelled almonds yields about 1 cup of shelled kernels; 1 pound of filberts about 1-1½ cups; 1 pound of peanuts about 2 cups; 1 pound of pecans about 1½ cups; 1 pound of English Walnuts a little more than 1½ cups halved kernels; and 1 pound of black walnuts about ½ cup broken kernels.

To Sweeten Grapefruit

A delicious way to sweeten breakfast grapefruit is to fill the hole in the half, left by cutting out the white center, with strained honey. Then set the fruit in the refrigerator overnight. By breakfast time the honey will have penetrated all sections of the fruit, giving it even sweetening and a delicate honey flavor. In some of the more expensive restaurants grapefruit prepared this way is listed on breakfast menus as "grapefruit supreme."

Baked Potatoes

Many a cook who is careful about the cooking and serving of green vegetables is casual about the baking of potatoes.

Recent studies indicate, however, that careful timing of the baking followed by prompt serving is important for saving vitamin C. Illinois tests showed that overbaking results in considerable loss of the vitamin. Idaho tests showed that potatoes that stood in the kitchen for half an hour after baking lost 33 percent of their vitamin C. Those that stood an hour lost 50 percent, and those that stood 4 hours lost 100 percent—or all of the vitamin.

ORTIE THEATRE
SUNDAY - MONDAY
"ANCHORS AWEIGH"

In Technicolor with Gene Kelly, Kathryn Grayson and Frank Sinatra with Jose Iturbi

When better musicals are made, Joe Pasternak will make them. His current production is the crowning achievement of his years of experience in the musical field. Maybe another musical will come along to top this one as this one tops the same producer's record-breaking "Thousands Cheer," but it won't be this year. "Anchors Aweigh" is manifestly destined to reap a golden harvest at the box office.

It's a long picture—running time, 143 minutes, but every one of those minutes is a treat, and few could well have been spared. The superb dances which Gene Kelly creates and executes are perhaps the most memorable of a memorable evening. All the world knows that Frank Sinatra can sing; now it turns out that he can act, too. His characterization of Kelly's shipmate is delightful. Kathryn Grayson has made remarkable strides since her screen debut, four years ago. Jose Iturbi's command of the piano is, of course, masterly beyond comment.

It's entertainment for all in glorious technicolor which will be remembered by all.

Stanislaus Notes

On Wednesday evening, November 28th, the Sodality of St. Stanislaus presented another Catholic Youth get-together. A fine program which featured several talented members of the Sodality had been planned. The Stanislaus orchestra furnished music for several of the numbers and as usual the Glee Club was heard.

Congratulations, Football Team

The season is over, the games are played. Under the circumstances the world would call our football team a failure because it did not win many victories. We are justly proud of our team, which is far below the standard class of the teams it played, because it showed a good fighting spirit. We need not congratulate our team and coaches, their record against the stronger teams speak for itself.

Band Concert Scheduled

The Columbia High School Band under the direction of Mr. H. F. Lane, will give the concert at S. J. A. gym this Friday. The Stanislaus Band will return the concert in Columbia sometime next month. It is a very good idea and will give both bands a nice trip.

Basketball Team Wins

St. Stanislaus varsity basketball team played Dedeaux at the S. J. A. gym Tuesday, November 20. The final score was St. Stanislaus 33, Dedeaux 25.

This was the first game and the first victory of the season.

Flea-Fly Classic

The annual game between the Fleas and Flies will be played Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The proceeds will go for the benefit of Brother Peter's Christmas Tree which is well known in Bay St. Louis. 106 mighty "dynmites" are to participate in the game.

Pulpwood Worker Solves
His Own Reconversion
Problem

How one ex-war worker solved his postwar reconversion problem, and what he learned in doing so, was brought to the Echo this week in a story from The Butler County News in Georgiana, Alabama.

Like thousands of other patriotic residents of small communities, Joe Welch left home to get a war industry job in a big city early in the war.

Jobs were plentiful then, according to Mr. Welch, and it was not long before he had a job at $1.25 per hour. With time and one-half for overtime, Joe was soon making a weekly wage that should have yielded some savings for a "rainy day."

"But I couldn't save a dime," Mr. Welch declared in discussing his war work. And he went on to explain that the costs of food, rent, entertainment and all the other factors that go into maintenance were so high that at the end of the week he found himself exactly where he started—with no savings.

About a year ago Mr. Welch went back to Mexia, Alabama, where he had worked as a pulpwood hauler. In the last year, since his return to pulpwood production, Mr. Welch reports that he had been able to save enough to invest in a farm and a small modern residence.

"I'm making more clear money hauling logs than I made in the city where board and transportation took everything I made," said Mr. Welch.

"I'm on a job now that will last," he continued, "and I'll never go back, for I wouldn't have saved anything if I'd stayed."

WITH THE FISHERMEN
AND OTHER SPORTS

By KANCHU KETCHUM

A GOOD BAROMETER

When fish bite abnormally as they did this past week end you can look for a decided change in the weather. It never fails.

Of course the weather, tides, and moon control fishing, this was proven over the week end when fish were biting at their best and every one caught their share.

The cold weather of last week and the moderate weather following did the trick. The water was perfect and the weather ideal.

All kinds of fish were caught both on artificial, live and dead bait. Speckles were caught in large numbers by trolling and casting. Green trout outdid themselves by striking both surface and underwater baits.

The numbers out over the week-end set a record. Up Jordan River a traffic cop could have been handy.

Among those seen included Junior Breath and daughter June; Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Porter and Ben Hille out on their yachts. All report a good catch.

Prof. Ingram and Bob Genin made a good catch of green trout Saturday afternoon. Prof. said he was really throwing the old rod.

Frank Cassidy and Ganu Lizana were trolling.

Several parties from Picayune, Poplarville and the Kiln got their share of speckles. Two trollers displayed a string of speckled beauties caught around Nicola's Camp.

Fritz Peranich reported catching some nice green trout over in Wolf River.

George Heitzmann, Sr., said that Sheephead and red fishing was exceptionally good along the railroad bridge. He caught a nice bunch.

Lawrence Jacobi, Lucien Kidd, Nolan Ladner, Roy Craft and Gene Davis are regular fishermen out on the railroad bridge. They reported catching some speckles weighing up to three pounds.

Few ducks have been noted of late. Something must be wrong.

Theo Tudury can be seen most any old place where there is water—on the Highway Bridge, over Wolf River way, up Bayou LaCroix, etc. He keeps us posted as to where the speckles are.

Norman Renshaw and wife like the moderate weather following did the trick. The water was perfect and the weather ideal.

Pete Caruso and Jos. di Benedetto talk a good fishing trip. But no kidding, they get their share.

Bob Genin and Dec Elliott got the limit of green trout Sunday up Jordan River while the boys were snagging the speckles. Bob says can't lay aside the old fly rod while the green trout are biting. They were really hitting those surface bugs over the week end.

Alden Mauffray and Johnny Scalfide were out one day this week—no report on their catches.

Mr. Nicola said he could have used some more boats over the week end. Not one was left unused. A little work on the road to his camp would help materially.

Robert (Wing) Bertucci and son Frank Bertucci and Joe Pizzalato went out along the railroad bridge Wednesday afternoon and made a nice catch of salt water fish.

Football games of the past couple of weeks have kept some fishing devotees off the river of late, better get back in the groove, boys!

Joe Burrow's pressure has gone up quite a bit. His new outboard motor is about to arrive.

Several squirrels have been bagged lately. Those reporting are Pete Porter, Pete Caruso, Oscar Bragg, Jr. and Sr.; Judge Henry Fayard, Harry Witter, John Mollere and son, J. D.

Thanksgiving Day afforded quail hunters one day of shooting their favorite birds. Several reports came in that quail are plentiful and with the opening of the season some good hunting is expected.

Dove hunters are anxiously awaiting the opening of the dove season, the middle of December. Large quantities of doves have been seen hereabouts and the shooting should be good.

Randolph Bourgeois, State Game Warden is on the job. Better get that fishing or hunting license before going out!

Ben Hille, Lucien M. Gex, Dr. Louis Maimus, Millard Toulme, Walter Favre, A. G. Favre, Octave Delph, are among some of the trollers who always catch their share of speckles.

Fishing must be a good sport after all, and there is no better fishing anywhere than hereabouts.

Dr. Marion Wolfe and Forster Commagere get their green trout by the slaughter pole route. They have made some nice catches this year.

Restocking of our streams has proven beneficial. Proof of the pudding is in the number of trout found in our rivers and bayous. Let's help preserve them.

"THE JOB HAS BEEN WELL DONE"

—says Secretary of War Patterson

"The transportation requirements of this war have been tremendous. The part played by the railroads of America in meeting these requirements has been so outstanding and of such a high degree of efficiency that it reflects great credit on railroad transportation generally and upon the officers and employees of the individual railroads which make up the whole. The job has been well done."

—Excerpt from a letter of the Hon. Robert P. Patterson, Secretary of War, addressed to the Association of American Railroads.

Thanks, Mr. Secretary, for this tribute!

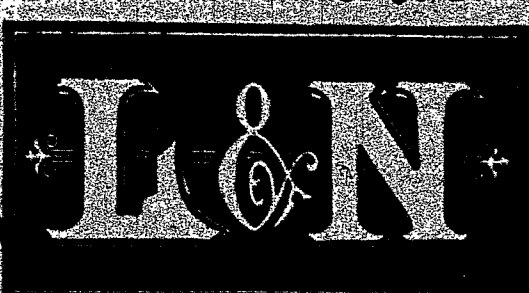

As a part of the great railroad industry, the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, with its 34,000 employees, a 42 million-dollar expenditure for improvements, and splendid public cooperation, helped to make this fine performance possible.

With a further improvement program of 30 million dollars already authorized, the "Old Reliable" is moving forward. It wants its peace time service also to warrant public recognition, good will, and patronage.

PULPWOOD BUSINESS

"I've been making good money out of pulpwood and it looks like a good business for a long time to come. So many of the new post-war products call for paper, plastics, synthetic textiles and chemicals made from Pulpwood. Almost all peacetime products must be wrapped or packaged in pulpwood so they can be sent to market. Pulpwood is especially needed right now to package the thousands of items Americans couldn't buy during the war.

"Veterans and ex-war workers will like the life, too. It's healthy, outdoor work—the kind that appeals to a real man. It's a business with a future. Let's go places in it—together."
